PART B: General Information

The Section on Business Law („the Section“) of the Nigerian Bar Association („NBA“) was created to do all of the following:

- To promote the delivery of qualitative business law services to the public;
- To promote and provide continuing legal education for the Section’s members ;
- To promote uniform study on the common interest of business law practitioners, that is anyone who practices business law, both locally and internationally;
- To guide, assist and organize enlightenment programs for committees on business law, legislative bodies and or parastatals in deliberations, drafting and enactment of legislation that pertain to commercial and business issues of the nation in general;
- To promote exchange of information and views among individual members of the Section and other likeminded bodies as to the laws, practices and procedures affecting the Section locally and internationally;
- To undertake such related activities as may be approved by the Section’s Council from time to time.

Membership is open to any member of the NBA upon satisfactory completion of this form and payment of the Section’s dues which are:

- Section membership above 7 years: ₦10,000 (Ten Thousand Naira) per annum
- Section membership from 0-7 years post call: ₦ 5,000 (Five Thousand Naira) per annum
- Committee membership: ₦ 2,000 (Two Thousand Naira) per committee per annum.

Please note that payment of ‘a’ and ‘b’ above entitles you to one free membership to any of the Section’s committees of your choice, and also that you can join as many committees as you can be committed to.

The Section is currently made up of eighteen (18) committees that exist solely to promote the participation of members of the NBA towards achieving the objectives of the Section. Please tick (✓) the box beside any of the committees you wish to join as listed in Part B of this form and insert “F” in the box beside the Committee that you have chosen as your free membership committee.
